Past Trips

Ms. Manners enjoys sharing your trip pictures. Please send them to her intern (so that she doesn't have to harass you to get them)! Email: il_kapralov@mail.ru

Trip reports:

- How-To: Storm The Wall by Lea Zhecheva. This trip report contains a potentially revolutionary wall climbing method. Will see how it picks up next year.
- How to feel like a beginner and do the neve without hitchhiking or shuttling- a trip report about another merely possible trip by any one else then Nick Matwyuk.
- Sunshine.Roland Burton describes the hiking adventures of VOCers and constantly mocks the name that was given to Sunshine Coast.
- Sunshine Coast Biking by Lea Zhecheva. Another story about muddy trails of Sunshine Coast, but from biker's perspective.
- The not so tweed-clad Neve Traverse with the UBC European Outdoor Group by Lianne Mcradu. Fresh-baked trip report from Neve.

Short trip notes:

Spearhead Traverse: Unfortunately due to weather concerns the trip had to be postponed. Heather is hoping to make it happen either this weekend or the next one.

Elfin Daytrip: "Five of us went up to Paul Ridge on Saturday. A male sooty grouse came up to us begging for food, which was exciting since they are normally shy birds. As a bird nerd, this made the day for me. At "the top" we were lucky enough to get a view of Elfin (including the Gargoyles, Opal Cone, and Mamquam; Garibaldi was covered in cloud though). All in all, a very pleasant day in good company." - Anna Szeitz

A Tweed-clad, Old-school Neve Ski Traverse: Trip turned out to be not so tweed-clad as planned but the main goal of the trip, to make the Neve, was successfully accomplished. Lianne will try to organize another true-tweed-clad trip this summer. So get stoked! Photo by Alex J

Spring Soak: "Soaking was great! Four of us went to Skookumchuck leaving Commercial station at 11am Saturday morning. We stopped for groceries and had coffee at Mt Currie in Pemberton on the way, but still made it quite early (4-5pm). We made a weird drink with tequila, orange juice, and apple cider and it was quite surprising no one got soaked with how much was consumed. My group mostly just relaxed but I went for an impromptu night swim in the creek which is very low right now with someone from another group we met. We went for an afternoon soak the next day and then left. No photos really taken as it was a hotsprings trip." - Sarah Taylor

Ms. Manners

Hi Ms. Manners!

Lately I feel like most people gave up on the world that we all live in: melting ice caps, social inequality, war, Trump... Do you know any cure for my dreads?

Jon S

Hi Jon!

Did you consider contacting Elon? In case there is still no hope for you, try reading what our club members think what will happen in next 100 years to our club. Maybe their prognosis about wonderful VOC of future will cheer you up. Let me know if it helps. Here is the link: VOC of future

Hold on!

Ms. Manners!

Ms. Manners is the VOC's resident expert on mountaineering and outdoors etiquette. Do you have a question for Ms. Manners? Email the VOCene editor and it will be forwarded on to Ms. Manners.

Ye Olde VOC:

A weekly recollection of the past of the club.

In the late 1960s and early 1970s, Longhike was a mandatory introduction to the club in the form of a hike and evening celebration at the Whistler Cabin. New members would gather in groups by gender and perform a dance to music, referred to as the Chorus Line.

Quote of the Week:

"Alternatively, we could drill a hole into the gas tank [of the snowmobile] and give out a fitting plug with the rental."

--- Jens Vent-Schmidt, Where to buy a used snowmobile for the VOC?

Weekly recipe:

Every now and then I'll include a recipe from the VOC wiki here. Try them out and share yours!
